UNITED METHODIST RETIREMENT COMMUNITIES NAMES DIRECTOR OF ENVIRONMENTAL SERVICES

Jeff Gauntlett recognized, promoted for outstanding dedication to environmental services

CHELSEA, Mich. – United Methodist Retirement Communities (UMRC) today announced the appointment of Jeff Gauntlett as director of environmental services for UMRC. In his new position, Gauntlett will oversee the maintenance and housekeeping areas for the Chelsea Retirement Community campus.

Gauntlett has been with UMRC for more than a year and has more than 30 years of experience in maintenance and environmental services.

Prior to joining UMRC, Gauntlett was the director of environmental services at an Ann Arbor-based health care facility.

Gauntlett resides in Ann Arbor.

Building on a foundation of more than 100 years of service, United Methodist Retirement Communities is a faith-based, non-profit organization that promotes the wellness, dignity and independence of older adults, by providing high quality, innovative and compassionate senior residential care services across Southeast Michigan.
