UNITED METHODIST RETIREMENT COMMUNITIES HIRES SHARON
PEDERSEN AS THE CEDARS OF DEXTER EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

CHELSEA, Mich. – United Methodist Retirement Communities (UMRC), a leader in independent and assisted senior living, has hired Sharon Pedersen as The Cedars of Dexter Executive Director. In this role, Pedersen will oversee daily operations at the innovative, active adult living community.

Pedersen spent 16 years in nonprofit management, including in the housing and mental health fields. Previously, she was in charge of organizational and program management, accounting, marketing and grant writing.

She earned a Master's degree in urban planning from the University of Michigan. Pedersen resides in Jackson.

Building on a foundation of more than 100 years of service, United Methodist Retirement Communities is a faith-based, non-profit organization that promotes the wellness, dignity and independence of older adults, by providing high quality, innovative and compassionate senior residential care services across Southeast Michigan.
